Using Women's Suite Marketplace to Build Multiple Revenue Streams

Hopefully you will agree that selling your products at both Events and online with Women's Suite would be an awesome way to create more streams of income. - Ka-ching.

Women's Suite + Events = Success

Having more than one stream of income not only increases your profit faster, it also increases your security. Because when you have multiple streams of income, you don't have to panic when business is slow or work from a big client dries up or you just need some extra cash.

Etsy Users

You can benefit from Women's Suite even if you are already using other eStore sites. In fact, if you currently have an Etsy store it's even better!

With just a few clicks your entire inventory can be copied from Etsy and uploaded to Women's Suite. What could be easier!

Your Women's Suite Marketplace eStore will complement and not compete with your web presence.

Why are multiple revenue streams so great?

- Multiple income streams free you from living project to project
- They help you meet expenses or savings goals
- They're your best defense against episodic income
- They may help grow your main business by increasing your brand presence, stature in your industry, or network

If you happen to have a long dry spell...

Now's the time to setup your Women's Suite Marketplace to sell your creations. Setting up a Women's Suite Marketplace is as easy as 1-2-3.

Inventory:

Unlike Events where you have to pre-make inventory, tie up a large amount of cash, now with Women's Suite 's Marketplace you can make goods/products to a specific order as needed.

Remember: You don't have to come up with a million dollar idea.

Even $50 a week is $2,600 a year and $13,000 over 5 years, and that's nothing to sneeze at. Plus, there's something special about side gigs: it frequently feels like "extra" money, and that $50 or $100 you get a week is somehow is more enjoyable to spend or easier to save.

Do you have multiple revenue streams? If not, what are your sales goals?
